This amateur production of "Panic Stations" is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, LTD.

PANIC

By Derek

Chester Dreadnought has bought a lovely country cottage, dreaming of idyllic peace, but is he able to enjoy it?

Not with an army camp down the road, nor with Abel Bounty, the local unhandyman, always around, and not with Carol, an attractive girl who seems to have mysteriously moved in.

Chester's aptitude for social and anti-social blunders is further increased by the arrival of his in-laws, Lord and Lady Elrood and the appearance of the scatty Miss Partridge oblivious to anything but 'echoes of the past'
